

Welcome to our May Newsletter

Monday 15th May Redcliffe Golf Club

Presidents Report Mark Kleimeyer

Redcliffe was Mate's Day and Symbion and Terry White Chemmart were our sponsors. They are long term sponsors, and we thank them for their continuing involvement. Andrew Crawley, Symbion's General Manager for Pharmacy spoke and shared details about the success of his company and its happy association with the Queensland Chemists Golf Club. After Andrew spoke, I also thanked Anthony White for his attendance and his company throughout the day. Anthony was previously the Chief Executive Officer of the Terry White Chemmart group, and he is slowly moving toward semi-retirement.

Pharmacy Solutions were of course our ball sponsors, and this year they have dug deep, so we now have Vice Pro balls as prizes. The Vice Pro balls are made in Germany and are comparable to Titleist Pro V1 balls. Thanks go to Peter Marshall and Bob Rose from Pharmacy Solutions for this generous initiative.

After I welcomed members, sponsors, and guests to Redcliffe for the day I thanked everyone for remembering their name tags and wearing them. It gives great pleasure to our Label Master Tom Garde to see our golfers using their name tags which he conscientiously prints for our use. I thanked Sharon Clark for going above and beyond to ensure her husband John remembered to wear his name tag at Sanctuary Cove, but alas the system fell apart for Redcliffe. Oh well, maybe at The Pines for our next game.

It was nice to welcome Heather Weigh back playing with us after the challenging Sanctuary Cove Palms outing. Heather looked well and enjoyed the day at Redcliffe.

I reminded everyone in attendance that it costs just $50 per year to become a member of QCGC and for an extra $100 per year we can keep their Golf Australia handicap, which enables them to play in golf competitions Australia wide with an official handicap.

At Redcliffe we had 72 golfers playing and despite the wet conditions we all enjoyed the day. Hannah and her team at Redcliffe did a great job looking after us.

Our next game will be on Monday 19th of June and will be an Ambrose day at Sanctuary Cove The Pines. This year they are giving us 128 spots for our field. Sanctuary Cove is always a sell out, so if you wish to play, I encourage you to book as soon as the playing sheet opens up. There are two sponsors for the day, and one of them 24K wealth, is doing something special on the day, so keep a look out for QCGC communications.

As our Captain and Vice-Captain were busy at work and unable to attend our ever-reliable Treasurer Peter White presented the prizes and this was captured on images taken by our accomplished photographer Ben White. Yes, a father and son combo! Anthony White was able to assist us with the prize presentations.

See you all at The Pines

Stress Relief Carnival Kingscliffe

Ian Dempster and Peter Castrisos are currently organising a week of golf Sunday 10th September to Friday 15th of September staying at Mantra Salt Kingscliffe. They have organized this “Stress Relief Carnival” for many years now and I know participants have a fabulous time. I have been lucky enough to attend on a couple of occasions. Chemist golfers and their friends come from Queensland, Victoria and New South Wales each year. If you are interested, please contact Ian Dempster demo.cdnlucas@gmail.com for more information as he currently has an email ready for distribution. As Demo points out in his document, you finish playing golf in Northern N.S.W just in time for the QCGC game at Royal Queensland on the 18th of September.

Treasurer's Report Peter White

Reminder : Cancellation of Bookings Policy

Cancelled bookings will not receive a refund of game fees when cancelled after the close of bookings (usually the Wednesday prior to a Monday game).

Where the game fee hasn't been paid, an invoice will be issued to recover the cost and must be paid to enable you to play any future games.

Regardless of the above, advice of a cancellation as soon as it is known would be appreciated as the organisation of groups & pairings is a difficult & time-consuming job. Last minute cancellations can cause disruption to the field and the enjoyment of the day for everyone.

Late Payment Fee

A $20 late payment will be applied for payments received after the Wednesday prior to a monthly game. Non-payment of the late fee where charged will make the player ineligible for prizes on the day.

Guests' Payments

Members inviting guests to a monthly game are held responsible to ensure payment of the guest's game fee. Please ensure your guest has paid or arrange payment yourself prior to the Wednesday cut-off time.

Next month's game

Our next QCGC monthly game is on Monday 19th of June at Sanctuary Cove "The Pines" Golf Club, sponsored by SIGMA Healthcare and 24K and is an Ambrose day

QCGC Membership

It is just $50 to be a member of QCGC, and for another $100, QCGC will maintain a Golf Australia handicap for you and provide an official golflink members card, enabling you to play in any official GA golf competition throughout Australia.

Thanks to all our wonderful sponsors!

Without our sponsors we would not have such a successful club. Wherever possible, please show your support by either considering their services or recommending to others!
